

UNCG's 19th Annual
Conference on African American Culture and Experience (CACE)

Race, Gender & Politics: Past, Present and Future

Thursday April 2nd-3rd, 2009

Elliott University Center (EUC), UNCG

Thursday, April 2nd, 2009, 6:30pm

Multicultural Resource Center in the EUC

CACE Literary Café Featuring Novelist Ernest Hill

Refreshments will be served. Book signing will follow.

Friday, April 3rd, 2009

8:30am-3:30pm in the EUC

Panels and Workshops

Critical Analysis of the Government and Public Policy

Race, Gender & Politics in Literature

Race, Gender and Politics through Service
Learning

Media, Pop Culture and Politics

Black Faith Traditions & Politics

Black Women's Political Engagement

3:30pm in the EUC Auditorium

Keynote Speaker, Dr. Curtis Austin

"A Woman's Place Is In the Struggle:

The Politics of Race and Gender in the Black Panther Party"

Book signing will follow.

Pre-Registration Encouraged!!!

More Information, Schedule & Registration:

www.uncg.edu/afs/cace.html

336.334.5507

afs@uncg.edu

UNCG Office of the Provost

UNCG College of Arts & Sciences

UNCG
History
Department