

Bryan Fellowship Program

The Bryan Fellowship Program is funded by the Kathleen Price and Joseph M. Bryan Endowment. Through this Fellowship, the Bryan School of Business and Economics seeks to attract graduate students of exceptional talent and ability into one of its four master's level programs. The selection of Bryan Fellows is based upon demonstrated academic excellence, leadership skills, and potential for success in business and economics related careers. Recipients receive fellowships valued at a minimum of $2000 and graduate assistantship appointments valued at a minimum of $6000. In a limited number of cases, tuition waivers may also be available.

Applications must include three recommendations, transcripts, a résumé and GMAT scores for the MS in Accounting, the MS in Information Technology and Management, and the MBA; and GRE scores for the MA in Applied Economics.

Specific questions about the Bryan Fellowship Program may be addressed to any Director of Graduate Study for the individual programs.
