Award Criteria. The Bryan School Distinguished Alumni Award is presented to alumni of any business program at The University of North Carolina at Greensboro who have achieved outstanding success in business. The award recognizes exceptional achievement and significant contribution to the recipient's profession and to the business community.

Eligibility. Nominees must be alumni (undergraduate or graduate) of a business program of The University of North Carolina at Greensboro. Current members of the Award Selection Committee and current full-time employees of The University of North Carolina at Greensboro may not be considered for the award. In selecting an award recipient, consideration will be given to nominees from all geographic locations and business professions.

Nominations. Nominations may be submitted by anyone except the nominee. Nominations must be submitted on this form. Additional copies of this form are available online at www.uncg.edu/bae/alumni.htm. Nominations are received on a rolling basis. The nomination will be considered active for five years after which a person must be re-nominated to be considered. Selection of the award recipients will be made by the Award Selection Committee. One award will be presented annually.

Questions. Any questions concerning the award or the selection process may be directed to the Dean's Office of the Bryan School of Business and Economics, 336.334.5338.

Instructions for submitting this nomination are on page 2 of this form.
