Other comments: Auckland's population is approximately 1.3 million, making it by far the largest city in New Zealand, with one third of the country's entire population. The city has modern architecture and many recreational areas and parks. Windsurfing is popular in the bays around the harbor, and so is kayaking, with regular guided expeditions to the far reaches of the Waitemata. New Zealand itself is renowned for its natural resources, breath-taking scenery, peacefulness and the friendliness and hospitality of its people.
