- FLANC is just around the corner and NCCA is hoping to see you there! The conference is scheduled for October 4-6, 2007 at the Embassy Suites-Marriott Twin Towers in Winston-Salem, NC. NCCA will hold its Fall meeting on Saturday, October 6 at the conference. The sessions are listed at the following website <http://www.flanc.org/conference/2007%20Schedule%20at%20a%20Glance.pdf>. Please note sessions 10, 20,32, 50, 60, 70, and 80, which are of particular interest to Latin teachers.

Please visit the FLANC website (<http://www.flanc.org/>) to register to attend the FLANC conference. The early registration deadline is September 7, 2007.

Richard Cartwright, who received a FLANC scholarship to attend a summer seminar on oral Latin will be presenting at FLANC about his experience.

- If you are interested in finding out more about this year's FLANC conference, Mary Pendergraft has posted some information on the NCLatinTeachers Yahoo Group. This is a great place for local Latin teachers to share ideas and information. If you want to join our group, please visit the following site <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/NCLatinTeachers/> and click on "Join this Group!".
- At our Spring, 2007 meeting at UNCG, the decision was made to only offer online and email based updates. This will be the final mailing that you receive from NCCA. Thus, it will be very important that we have correct information about you, including your email address, so that you will continue to receive news and updates from the North Carolina Classics Association. Please complete the attached form and return it as soon as possible to Jennifer Parry-Hill.
- If you paid in the Spring, your dues are covered through Spring, 2008. Your $20.00 dues will now grant you Fall, 2007-Fall, 2008 membership. Checks should be made payable to the North Carolina Classics Association.
