

CST 412 Internship Information

The information below should help you choose an appropriate faculty member to supervise you in your internship experience. If your possible internship does not seem to fit the areas below, simply begin the process by speaking with the faculty member who best seems to match your internship area and goals. The categories below are not exhaustive. Please keep in mind, though, that your internship experience must be closely tied to the Department of Communication Studies curriculum.

Notes:

1. As areas of interest and expertise vary among faculty members, the prerequisites also vary.
2. You CANNOT register for CST 412 without the permission of a faculty supervisor.

Faculty Member	Interests and Expertise	Prerequisites
Bracci	Ethics, Persuasion, Health Care Settings	Ethics: CST 210 Persuasion: CST 315
Carlone	Human Resources Management, Organization Consulting, Training and Development, Profit & Non-Profit	CST 105 CST 308
Cuny	Storytelling, Communication Across the Curriculum	CST 390 FMS 130 Or Instructor Permission
Delk	Interpersonal, Education, Basic Speaking & Basic Business Communication	CST 105 and/or 341 CST 207 CST 350 Or Instructor Permission
Fairfield-Artman	Public Relations, Non-Profit Organizations, Corporate Strategic Communication	CST 105 or 341 CST 342
Ferguson	Education/Pedagogy/Schools, Internships with Strong Interpersonal or Small Group Component	CST 207 and/or CST 350
Jovanovic	Community relations, Homeless advocacy, Non-profit management, Local government, Corporate & grassroots organizations, News media	CST 200 or CST 210 or CST 460: Communities
Kellett	Mediation and conflict resolution	Conflict-CST 344
Kinefuchi	Intercultural Relations, Diversity issues in organizations and community, Intercultural training	CST 200 CST 337: Intercultural Communication
LeGreco	Health & Policy, Health Promotion, Organizational Consulting, Public Speaking	CST 105 CST 200
Manning	Performance, AIDS, Gender, Aesthetic Communication	CST 105
Natalle	Gender & Interpersonal/Community-oriented sites (e.g., Women's Resource Center, Planned Parenthood, United Arts Council, youth ministry, communication on status of women)	Gender-CST 460: Gender & CST 300 Interpersonal-CST 207
Poulos	Training & development, Organizational Development, Self-directed work teams, Groups & teams, Conflict mediation, Work involving interpersonal/relational communication skills	CST 200, CST 207, CST 210 & CST 350
Schwartzman	Educational settings, publishing, technology, politics, and lobbying	CST 105, CST 311, CST 300, and CST 305 or 315