“Finally, in the wee hours of the morning of December 15, 1702, the forty-seven ronin began to carry out their plan to restore Asano's honor. Some of them were sent as messengers to the surrounding area, to inform the people that they were only after Kira and his retainers. Since Kira was not popular with them, they left the ronin alone after that. They spent hours scouring Kira's mansion by the crack of dawn had driven out every single person there... except Kira.”

Freshman

I am a college student and I am 18 years old. I am currently a freshman at UNCG and am majoring in mathematics with plans to get a Master's degree in statistics from North Carolina State after four years here. I am also working on a minor in Spanish and one in Physics. Being a math major, this storytelling class was really broadening my horizons, but at the same time I was comfortable with many aspects of it.
