SPECIAL DEADLINE EXTENSION

March 14 - Online Application

March 21 - Supplemental Materials

The Institute on Philanthropy and Voluntary Service , a summer nonprofit internship and academic program, is ideal for undergraduate student leaders who are engaged in service programs on and off their campuses. All majors and fields of study are welcome. As part of the Institute experience, students will attend exclusive events and participate in hands-on activities including developing a mission statement, planning service projects and organizing fundraising activities.

This face-paced Institute offers a combination of professional experience, academic courses and leadership development activities including:

- Nonprofit Internships – Competitive placements with leading nonprofit organizations
- Classes – Up to 9 credit hours from Georgetown University
- Housing – Furnished on-campus apartments
- Service – Variety of hands-on community projects
- Guest Lectures – With Washington's top nonprofit executives and scholars
- Leadership Development – Leadership, mentoring and career building activities
- Scholarships – Over half of all students receive full or partial funding
- Networking – With hundreds of other student and nonprofit leaders from around the world
