

NEWFOUND HARBOR MARINE INSTITUTE

Benefits:

- Professional Training
- Skill Development
- Hands-On Experience
- Academic Credit Possible
- Room and Board
- Monthly Stipend
- Travel Bonus
- Future Employment Opportunities

Dates of Program:

September - December or

January - May

Application Deadlines:

July 1 for Fall

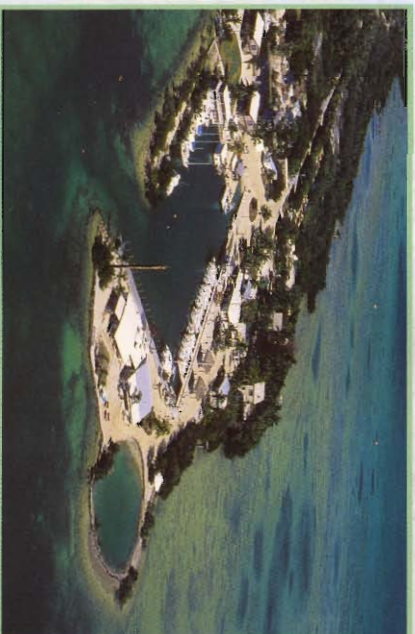

October 15 for Spring

INTERNSHIPS IN MARINE ENVIRONMENTAL EDUCATION

Experiential Training

Comprehensive Training Program Including...

- Seminars • Program Observation
- Teaching Field Oriented Marine Education
- Program Development • Boat Operation Skills
- Certifications in: ARC First Aid, CPR, & Lifeguarding

NEWFOUND HARBOR MARINE INSTITUTE, a non-profit environmental education center offering field trip services to school groups at Seacamp, Big Pine Key, Florida – 130 miles south of Miami and adjacent to the tropical coral reef tract of the Florida Keys National Marine Sanctuary, and headquarters of Key Deer and Great White Heron National Wildlife Refuges.

To Learn More...

Newfound Harbor

Marine Institute

Attention: Intern Coordinator

1300 Big Pine Ave.

Big Pine Key, Florida 33043

or Call

(305) 872-2331

www.nhmi.org

e-mail: internships.info@nhmi.org

PLEASE POST.....