

NAME: David E. Purpel

CURRENT POSITION: Professor, Department of Educational Leadership and Curriculum Foundations

CONTACT INFORMATION:

Office Address: 230 Curry Building

Phone: (336) 334-3467 E-mail: PURPELD@dewey.uncg.edu

PRIMARY SPECIALIZATION(S): List areas of teaching and research expertise

EDUCATION:

A.B. (History), Tufts College, 1954

M.A.T. (Social Studies), Harvard University, 1956

Ed.D., Harvard University, 1961

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE (1996-Present):

University

1972-present Professor, Department of Educational Leadership and Curriculum Foundations; The University of North Carolina at Greensboro

Summary Statement of Professional Experience prior to 1996:

1 year teaching junior high school English and Social Studies; 38 years university teaching

TEACHING (1996-Present):

Graduate Courses in Supervision, Curriculum Planning, Curriculum Theory, Spirituality and Education, Moral Education, History of Education, Secondary Education. Undergraduate courses in Literature and Education, and Foundations of Education.

Advising

Undergraduate and Masters students; Chaired over 50 doctoral committees.

SCHOLARSHIP (1996-Present):

Publications and/or Performances

"Social Transformation and Holistic Education: Limitations and Possibilities", Holistic Education Review, Summer, 1996.

"Service Learning: Critique and Affirmation" Encounter. June, 1998.

"The Politics of Character Education" in Character Education, NSSE Yearbook, 1998.

"On Being a Jew and Boston Braves Fan: Alone and Afraid in a World I Never Made" in Shapiro, Svi. Strangers In a New Land. Peter Lang, 1999.

Moral Outrage and Education. Peter Lang Publishing, 1999.

"Review essay on religion and education: Huebner and Blacker", Encounter, Spring, 2001.

"Response to the Barlosky critique". Curriculum Inquiry. In press.

"Prophetic spirituality and education" in Miller, John (ed.) Holistic Education Press. In press.

Spirit and Education. "Spirituality and curriculum" in Carlson, Dennis (ed.)

"Educational theory and the challenges of spirituality", Peter Lang Publications. In press.

Review of Gordon Chamberlain's Those Who Serve Us, Lang Publications, 1998, in Educational Foundations, forthcoming

Perspectives on Jewish Education. Jewish Theological Seminary Press, forthcoming.

Presentations L

Discussant, Symposium on "Curriculum in the post-modern age". AERA conference, April 2001.

Presentation on "Spiritual dimensions of curriculum studies." AERA

conference, April 2001

Consultations, Speeches, Talks, etc.

Office of Education, Manhattanville College, Marygrove College, Solomon Schector School, Catholic University, George School, University of Western Ontario, Trinity College, Westminster School, Connecticut Commission on Higher Education, Police Foundation, Montgomery County Schools, Evanston Township Country Day School, Polaroid Corporation, Foxcroft School, Latin School of Chicago, St. Thomas Episcopal Church, Temple Beth David, Guilford College, Dalton School, Madeira School, Windsor School, and more.

Workshops Conducted

Workshops in teacher evaluation at: Public Schools of Arlington, MA; Brookline, MA; Framingham, MA; Kinston, NC; Eden, NC; Greensboro, NC. Private schools Foxcroft School; Greensboro Day School; Order of Sacred Heart Schools; National Association of Independent Schools; Independent Schools Service; Independent Schools of Southwest; American Schools in Cairo, Athens, and Tel Aviv; Pierce College, Athens, Greece; Shutz School, Alexandria, Egypt; Grace Church School, U. N. International School, and more.

I have also conducted several workshops in curriculum development, faculty development, and moral education for individual schools and regional associations.

Other Scholarship

Summary Statement of Scholarship prior to 1996: 14 articles in regional and national journals; 9 books; numerous presentations at regional and national conferences including AERA and AESA

SERVICE (1996-Present):

University Governance

Served on and chaired many committees and task forces such as admissions, financial aid, curriculum graduate studies. Have been elected as Chair of Faculty Executive Committee, University Grievance Committee, Faculty Governance Committee, Faculty Senate, and long-range planning committees.

Conferences and Symposia Sponsored and Directed (Center for Educational Reform)

P.D.K. Symposium on "Humanistic Education" "Human Liberation and the Academic Disciplines" "Human Values in the Context of Schooling" "The Religious Dimensions of Education "

Editor of Curriculum and Supervision Series, McCutchan Publishing Co. (1972-1997)

Board of Directors, McCutchan Publishing Co. (1976-1997)

Board of Directors, N.C. Poverty Project (1994-present)

Editorial Board, Encounter (1992-present)

Editorial Board, Journal of Religious Education

SELECTED HONORS & AWARDS: Emphasize honors and awards related to teaching, scholarship and service

Lifetime Achievement Award. AERA Division B (Curriculum Studies). April 2001.