

The UNCG Gerontology Program Recognition Reception — April 2011

UNCG • Elliott University Center • Dogwood Room

Each year the UNCG Gerontology Program has the pleasure to recognize and honor our current academic year graduates, our preceptors who facilitate student internships, and friends who provide outstanding support as we celebrate with peers, faculty and mentors.

Integrative Seminar students share presentations from 2 until 4 p.m.

Chip Cromartie accepted our Preceptor Award honoring the Adult Center for Enrichment.

Brittany Singhas received our Student Portfolio
Award
for Scholarship and Research
presented by Dr. Sandy Leak.

Our Friends of the Program award was presented to Blair Barton-Percival of the Piedmont Triad
Council of Governments.

Graduating students

Kimberly Miller-McDowell, Gerald O'Donnell, Jennifer Mroz, Jessica Erricolo and Brittany Singhas appreciated personal appellations shared by UNCG Gerontology Program Director Dr. Jan Wassel.
(Graduates Jonathan Law and Amanda May were unable to attend.)

Gerald O'Donnell
received our Student Portfolio Award for Leadership and Service from
Dr. Janice Wassel.

A scrumptious awards reception completed our 2011 Recognition Reception!