

Job Description for HES Foundation Board Members

- Willing to aid and promote, by financial assistance and otherwise, excellence in higher education, research and service in the School of Human Environmental Sciences at The University of North Carolina at Greensboro
- Willing to aid and promote the endowment of the School of Human Environmental Sciences for professorships, scholarships, fellowships, loan funds, program support, and other forms of financial assistance to faculty, staff and students by helping to raise funds through
 - Making a personal annual financial contribution
 - Identifying potential donors
 - Soliciting gifts with a University staff member
- Attend and participate in Foundation Board of Directors meetings and the Foundation Annual Meeting
- Attend special events and programs of the School, such as Honors receptions, HES Graduation Ceremony and other events that promote the School in special ways
- Serve on a Board committee, as a committee chair, or as an officer when requested
- Become informed about the School and its programs and needs
- Provide the advantage of networking skills, talents and abilities when called upon to consult on an existing or developing program in the School, to mentor a student in your area, or other special contribution, as appropriate