To complete the application, please attach a typewritten research proposal developed within the following guidelines:

- a. Title of Research Proposal*
- b. A 3-page narrative outlining the rationale, significance and methodology for proposed research project. The proposal should be written so that faculty from different disciplines within the School of HHP can make informed judgments about the proposal. Evaluations will be based on the degree to which the request for funds is persuasive and understandable. The following criteria will be used to judge the quality of the proposals.
 - 1) Clarity of purpose and central questions or hypotheses.
 - 2) Importance of proposed work.
 - 3) Appropriateness of theoretical framework.
 - 4) Appropriateness of methodology.
 - 5) Appropriateness of data analysis.
- c. The narrative is limited to three single-spaced pages, but an extra page may be added for references or figures if necessary. Uniform margins of 1 inch must be left on the top, bottom, right and left of every page and no condensed typefaces can be used. Twelve-point font should be used.
- d. Two letters of recommendation, both placed in sealed envelopes with recommender's signature across the flap. One of the letters should be from the applicant's major advisor. Both letters should address: quality of significance of the proposed project, qualifications of applicant to undertake the work; quality of applicant's academic standing.

*Research topics limited to: diversity, specifically issues related to sexual orientation (i.e., homophobia, heterosexism, safe/hate-free environments, pedagogical strategies) and/or women's health and wellness.
