Social Work in Scotland and the US: An Exchange of Ideas and Culture

Join Annual Summer Exchange in Glasgow, Scotland
Summer Session 2016
June 3 - July 2

Sponsored by the UNCG Department of Social Work & The Glasgow School of Social Work & Social Policy
In Partnership with the Glasgow School of Social Work...

Social Work 522: Comparative Study of Social Work Services in Scotland and the United States

Course Description: This course emphasizes a comparative analysis of similarities and differences in social policy, social services, and social work practice in the U.S. and Scotland. Particular attention will be given to services for youth, children, immigrants and refugees, and people with mental health concerns. Faculty and students from both UNCG and the University of Strathclyde participate in this course.

Credit: The SWK 522 course offers three hours credit. Students using financial aid will need to also take an additional course (Independent Study available, SWK 451 for undergraduates/551 for grad students) for a total of 6 hours credit.

Eligibility: Open to rising BSW juniors or seniors, social work minors, JMSW students, BSW or MSW graduates, students from other BSW/MSW program or students from related majors. Course limited to 10 - 12 students.

Glasgow

The city of Glasgow is a major business, educational and cultural center near the west coast of Scotland. Easily accessible are Edinburgh, the Lakes Region, St. Andrews and the Scottish Highlands. London is reached by a half-day train ride.

Housing

Housing will be provided at the downtown campus of the University of Strathclyde, convenient to museums, shopping, restaurants, transportation and other amenities. Students will have individual rooms in suites that include kitchens.

Application Process

- Go to International Programs Center website and complete application online by February 12, 2016 deadline.
