"British History, 1688-2004"

This upper-division course surveys British history from the late 17th century until the present day. Using intellectual treatises, novels, short stories, music, plays, and other primary sources, students will examine the major landmarks in the social, political, intellectual, and cultural history of the diverse peoples of the British Isles -- the "Glorious" Revolution of 1688, the creation of the world's first "modern," democratic, liberal nation in the 19th century, the construction and decline of global empires, world wars, punk rock, the Thatcher Revolution, and the emergence of Tony Blair and "Cool Britannia" in the late 20th century.

Required Readings

The following books are required for this course and are available for purchase at the UNCG Bookstore in Elliot University Center and at Addam's Bookstore on Tate Street. Copies of the books will also be placed on reserve in Jackson Library.

Arnstein, Britain Yesterday and Today: 1830 to the Present, 8th Edition.
Austen, Sense and Sensibility (Penguin).
Dickens, Hard Times (Bantam Classics).
Shaw, Major Barbara (Penguin).
Graves, Goodbye To All That (Anchor).

Other short readings for this course will be available via electronic reserve through Jackson Library.

Grading

Grades for this course will be assigned according to the following scheme:

20% -- Midterm 1
20% -- Midterm 2
15% -- Paper
35% -- Final
10% -- Participation (includes attendance, talking during class discussions, and written responses to readings)

Exams

There will be two midterm exams in this course. Midterm 1 will be held on Monday, September 20th. Midterm 2 will be held on Monday, October 25th. Each exam will consist of identifications (based upon the Key Word terms listed on each lecture outline and posted on the web site) and an essay portion. The Final Exam will be held on Monday, December 13th, from 12:00 - 3:00 p.m. in 225 McIver. The exam will consist of a Key Word ID section, a passage ID section (drawn from the assigned documents for this course), and an essay portion. Make up exams will only be given in extreme circumstances (e.g. serious illness, bereavement), and a note must accompany requests. No "Incomplete" grades will be given.

Paper

There will be one major written assignment in this course, an essay of no less than ten (10) pages on a topic to be assigned in advance. A choice of topics will be provided approximately 2-3 weeks prior to the due date, and students will be expected to draw upon the readings for the course in producing their essay. The paper will be due on Monday, November 22 by 4 p.m. in the History Department main office (221 McIver).
