5. Getting to Greensboro, North Carolina

You can fly to the Greensboro airport: Piedmont-Triad International Airport, Greensboro, North Carolina. From the airport, Greensboro/UNCG is ten miles away. A 15-20 minute cab ride costs approximately $18-24.

All exchange students may be met and greeted by a staff member at the airport provided The International Programs Center is advised of your arrival schedule (airline, flight number and arrival time) at least two weeks in advance and provided arrival is before 10:00 p.m. (including flight delays). IPC will also arrange pick-up for you by a local taxi/limousine company. After 10:00 p.m., we can not assure that you will be met and greeted by a staff member, but IPC will make every effort to arrange pick-up by the taxi/limousine company, provided we know your arrival time in advance. If you arrive late and are not met at the airport, you should take a taxi to your lodging. Please email IPC at studyabroad@uncg.edu indicating the following information: your name, complete arrival information including flight number (or train or bus information), date and time of arrival and the hotel where you have made a reservation.

Greensboro is also served by Amtrak trains (<http://www.amtrak.com>) from all points north and south.

6. Orientation Program.

The Fall 2008 Orientation for all international exchange students takes place beginning on Tuesday, August 19, 2008 (for the Spring Semester, Wednesday, January 14, 2009.) Please try to arrive no later than the previous day in Greensboro. (See arrival in paragraph 2.)

You will participate in university orientation activities for all international students, with special orientation programs and events for exchange students. Various activities will be scheduled at UNCG and in the community including tours, shopping trips, a lake trip and parties.

7. Housing and Meal Benefits During Academic Sessions

You will receive housing for the full period of the exchange. For provision of benefits during vacation periods, see Paragraph #10.

Benefits - Housing

Type of housing provided: Shared-Residence hall room (exc. Tower Village & Spring Garden Apartments)

How many students share a room or apartment? TWO

How many students share bathroom facilities? TEN
 Are cooking facilities provided? No (minimal) exception: Tower Village
 Are bed linens provided? No
 Are blankets provided? No
 Are towels provided? No
 Are laundry facilities available? Yes
 How far is housing from institution? Located on campus

As an exchange student, you are NOT required to send a housing deposit for accommodations.

Note regarding single room accommodations: single rooms are generally not available at UNCG with the exception of Tower Village (as-available). Exchange students interested in living in Tower Village or Spring Garden Apartments will need to pay supplementary charges for rent (approximately $800-$900/semester) and food.

Married, Co-ed or family rooms are not available. Co-habitation is considered a violation of the housing contract.

8. Housing - Off-Campus -- You must live on Campus to receive housing benefits.

9. Meals - On-Campus

Benefits - Meals

You will have many meal plan options (subject to change):

2007-2008 Residential Student Meal Plans (Rate for 2008-2009 will be slightly higher)

Spring Garden Apartments or Tower Village	Apartment 600	$600	0	$600

Cafeteria meals are "all you can eat." Students that choose declining balance options will receive this balance on their Student I.D. card to use at service concessions across campus such as java café, fast food, salad bar, university dining hall, etc.

Note: Students that live in residence halls or apartments must purchase one on-campus meal plan as required.

10. Vacation/Holiday Periods

If you live in residence halls, IPC can arrange for students to remain in housing for minimal cost over holidays and vacation periods. Students should advise IPC well in advance of their plans.

11. Estimated personal expenses:

You should probably budget a minimum of $150 - $300 per month for miscellaneous costs such as local travel, entertainment, supplies etc.

Insurance: about $350 per semester--(UNCG health insurance is mandatory and you will be billed upon arrival.)

Books: you should budget between $200 - $450 per semester. Actual cost depends upon classes taken.

12. Medical Requirement/Health Services

In this packet you have received a memo entitled "Student Medical Form" with instructions concerning your medical forms. You should now follow the instructions on that sheet. It is far less expensive for you to have your forms completed at home than to do it once you arrive.

Important: You should bring copies of vaccination records. If you have insufficient evidence of proper inoculations, you may receive these upon your arrival at your own expense. Most vaccinations cost between $10 and $20.

There is a full-service university infirmary on campus providing medical services. There is also a counseling center with counselors and psychologists on staff.

Insurance

U.S. Government regulations require you to have sufficient medical insurance coverage to participate on an exchange to the United States. Accordingly, insurance coverage through a UNCG-approved plan is mandatory and you will be billed through your student account upon your arrival. The UNCG insurance plan costs about Approximately: $350 per semester in 2007-2008. For more information on the policy, see the following web site: <http://www.uncg.edu/ipg/studyabroad/jinsuranceinfo.html> (NB: ISEP participants pay their insurance through ISEP).

13. Miscellaneous:

Transportation: Like many U.S. cities, Greensboro does not have an extensive public transportation system (there is limited bus service). Greensboro is an automobile town, with most students getting around by car. Some international students choose to buy an older car to get around during their studies at UNCG.

Employment: Exchange students are eligible to work on-campus up to 20 hours per week when classes are in session; 40 hours per week during holiday periods.
