

Announcement of Graduate Assistant Position Vacancy

The University of North Carolina at Greensboro (UNCG) seeks applicants for the position of Graduate Assistant Athletic Trainer to begin in August of 2010. The position will require coverage of the athletic training room, as well as assigned sports (to include travel) and administrative duties as assigned.

UNCG offers a post-certification Master of Science degree in Sports Medicine through the department of Kinesiology. Graduate Assistants will serve as an Approved Clinical Instructor (ACI) in the entry-level masters Athletic Training Education Program (ATEP) and will have numerous opportunities to collaborate with Certified Athletic Training staff, faculty, and doctoral students in clinical, teaching, and research settings. Questions about the clinical portion of the assistantship may be directed to Erica Thornton, MS, LAT, ATC, Head Athletic Trainer at eapearso@uncg.edu.

Information about the post-certification MS program in Sports Medicine can be found at <http://www.uncg.edu/ess/anrl/MSProg.html>. General information and admission requirements for graduate studies in Exercise and Sports Science can be found at <http://www.uncg.edu/ess/essappl.html>. For further information regarding graduate studies in Sports Medicine, please contact Sandy Shultz, PhD, ATC at sjshultz@uncg.edu.

Applicants must be BOC Certified and be eligible for admission to the graduate school. In addition to the graduate school application, please forward a cover letter, resume, and list of three references directly to the address below. Review of applicants will begin December 15th, 2009 and continue until the position is filled.

Erica Thornton, MS, LAT, ATC
UNCG Athletics
PO Box 26168
Greensboro, NC 27402-6168