Coming Fall 2016: The BA in Languages, Literatures, and Cultures

Do you love languages and other cultures?
Do you want to make a difference in the world?
Do you want to increase your earning potential?

Then the new BA in LLC is for you!

With concentrations in French, German, Teacher Licensure in French and Spanish, and a new concentration, Global Languages and Communities, the BA in LLC provides a language-based understanding of cultures that emphasizes community-based global engagement. Undergraduate students with some knowledge and skills in at least one of the languages taught by the department, American Sign Language, Chinese, French, German, Japanese, Russian, and Spanish, as well as a passion for global cultures and intercultural communication, will be particularly interested in this degree option.

When you complete your studies with us, you will
• gain linguistic and intercultural competencies applicable to many fields,
• learn more about the cultures of these languages,
• acquire intercultural competence for a globalized world.

Course offerings in Fall 2016:
LLC 120  Global Crossings: The Global Culture of Soccer
LLC 130  Global Green: Coffee and Chocolate: From Production to Consumption
LLC 250  Global Cultures Through Film
LLC 455  Rebels and Outcasts in World Literature and Culture Before 1750

Interested? Contact Dr. Rinner at s_rinner@uncg.edu! Find more information in the Undergraduate Bulletin 2016/2017 and sign up for the new major beginning August 2016! The Department of Languages, Literatures, and Cultures also offers a BA in Spanish. Our graduate program allows students to complete the MA in Languages, Literatures, and Cultures with concentrations in French and Spanish! For more information please check out our website at http://www.uncg.edu/llc/