Subject acknowledges survey and starts survey.

Subject will fill out demographic information if requested.

Subject will be directed to answer one question. The question will be displayed with a value of the variable S, they will be prompted to add their response and S together. The research will only need the total.

What is variable S?
Variable S has a distribution that closes models a standard normal distribution. It can take the values of -2, -1, 0, 1, 2. These can be changed.

Question Screen
Subject will be shown the question and the value of S.

The subject must take their response and add the value of S that was shown, they are told to do this on the question screen.

Subject will give a numerical answer and survey will end.