

VT Francisco – Research Projects and Development Opportunities

- Improve community supports for families of children with special health care needs
- Capacity building activities using CTB and web-based technologies
- Community mobilization approaches to systems change
- Interventions to increase/improve collaboration across systems
- Development of new community leadership

- Improve community supports for pregnant and parenting teens and their families
- Capacity building activities using CTB and web-based technologies
- Community mobilization approaches to systems change
- Interventions to increase/improve collaboration across systems
- Development of new community leadership

- PHSR Research Agenda development
- Core Competencies in PH
- Workforce Pipeline Definition and Development
- Academic Health Center working group

- Community Mobilization for systems change/population health improvement
- Understanding the influence of context on successful structural change
- MH and SA concomitants to HIV infection
- Treatment adherence among HIV+ youth

- <http://ctb.ku.edu/> - WWW based technical support infrastructure
- 6000+ pages of tech asst materials
- Ask an Advisor
- Online data collection and support
- Technical Assistance

- Lead Editor and head of management team
- Editorial board comprised of community practitioners and applied researchers from 5 continents
- Articles reflecting both global and local views on community psychology practice, videos and tools submitted from 6 continents

Common Themes

1. Link between systems changes and behavior change, health outcomes
2. Community mobilization for systems changes
3. Psychological processes in community, empowerment, meta-contingencies
4. Capacity building so communities can do this work themselves
5. Engaging communities for Positive Youth Development
6. Community Leadership Research and Development

Continuing Areas of Research NOS

- Adult caring for youth in community
- Youth Mentoring
- Personal development