

2006-2007 Teaching Fellows Staff

Director of Teaching Fellows Toni Knight

Email tfknight@uncg.edu
Work Phone 334-3410
Office Location 341B Curry
Office Hours 9-5 daily, but please make an appointment as I am often away from my desk at meetings.

Notes

I received a BA in History with social studies licensure in 1971 and taught in Rockingham County for 9 years as a junior high teacher. I received my M.Ed. in Counseling from UNCG in 1988 and took the position I currently have.

I'm married to Tom Smith and have 3 children: Kim Boone, Jason Knight, and Tracie Smith. I also have 5 grandchildren: Sam and Mattie Boone and Joshua, Jacob, & Emma Grace Knight.

And, finally, I have 2 granddogs: Maggie Knight and Allie Boone.

My family is the core of my life and give me sustenance. They prove to me daily that life is good.

I also love what I do. I wake up everyday and look forward to the work I do at UNCG. I'm sure that's because of the students whose lives touch mine.

CUI Assistant Professor and Coordinator of Secondary Education Jewell Cooper

Email jecooper@uncg.edu
Work Phone 334-3438
Office Location 317 Curry
Office Hours By appointment & during office hours

Notes

BA - UNCG - Intermediate Education
MS - University of Memphis (formerly Memphis State University - Curriculum and Instruction (Instructional Technology and Design)
PhD - UNCG - Curriculum and Instruction

Research interests: - preservice teacher preparation for teaching to diversity, ethnic identity development, and equity issues.

Before UNCG: I was a middle school language arts and social studies teacher in Alamance County, NC and in Memphis, TN. I was also an instructor and professor in the Department of Education at Bennett College in Greensboro. I have worked with the PAL (Piedmont Alternative Licensure Program) at Greensboro College. I've worked with hundreds of teachers in staff development activities.

I have two college-age sons, Adam and Joey.
Hobbies: I love the Motown sound (listening to rhythm and blues music), listening to unabridged books on tape, collecting African American picture books, and going to movies.

What I think about the Teaching Fellows: No doubt, my greatest joy in being at UNCG is working with the Teaching Fellows. I have had a wonderful opportunity in leading (through seminar) the juniors. They have taught me much more than I have taught them. I really look forward to working with this year's juniors. This group, I am sure, will teach me even more.

Ed.D, Educational Leadership and Cultural Foundations Carl Lashley

Email Carl_Lashley@uncg.edu
Work Phone 334-3745
Office Location 245 Curry
Personal Link <http://www.uncg.edu/elc/Lashley>

Notes

Ed.D. Indiana University, Educational leadership
M.A. West Virginia University, Special Education
B.A. West Virginia University, Political Science

I have been an elementary and special education teacher, a principal, and a district office administrator. My areas of interest are school law, special education law and policy, and the school as a workplace.

I am married to Lee Lashley, who is currently a fifth grade teacher at Claxton Elementary School, and I have one daughter, Erin, who is a teacher of students with behavior disorders in San Antonio, Texas.

Program Assistant Brenda Jones

Email brenda_jones@uncg.edu

Work Phone 334 3410

Office Location 341A Curry

Office Hours 8:00-5:00, M-F

Notes: Originally I moved here from Horry County South Carolina in 1998 where I worked with the Solicitor's Office as a paralegal in Criminal Law. I am married to Jeff Jones who is an aircraft mechanic for Cessna Aircraft. My children consist of 7 cats and 2 dogs. I also rescue feral cats and try my best to stop the feral cat population in our neighborhood.

I came on board with the Teaching Fellows in January 2006 and have enjoyed my position immensely. I look forward to a wonderful rewarding career with the School of Education/Teaching Fellows Program.

Assistant Director of Teaching Fellows Annette Cline

Email rwcline@uncg.edu

Work Phone 334-3410

Office Location 341F Curry

Office Hours 9-5 daily, but please make an appointment as I am often away from my desk at meetings.

Notes

I received a BS in Business Administration from Christopher Newport College in Newport News, VA. and a Masters of Business Administration from St. Mary's University in San Antonio, TX. When my husband retired from the Air Force in 1997, we returned to the Greensboro area (my hometown). Since returning to Greensboro, I have worked at Pilot Elementary School. In 1999, I went to work in the Financial Aid office at Randolph Community College before coming to UNCG in April 2001.

Here at UNCG, I worked for over four years as an advisor in Student Academic Services and taught UNS 101, which is a course for freshmen to help them make the transition from high school to college. May 2005, I moved to my current position working as an advisor in the School of Education and working with the Teaching Fellows program. I love teaching and working with the students here at UNCG!!!

I am truly blessed to be married to Robert Cline for almost 29 years and have 2 wonderful sons: Scott and Paul.

My interests include: reading, watching weather & house hunting shows on TV, and watching/going to see the UNC-CH Tar Heels play any sport!!! Go Spartans & Go Heels!!!!!!

