

Hi, I'm Carrie. I'm a Political Science major here at UNCG. I'm also pursuing my Social Science licensure as well and getting a pre-law concentration.

I've been a Teaching Fellow since 2004. It's been an incredible program, I've met some of my best friends in Teaching Fellows.

Your given the opportunity to work a lot with different schools and students and I feel I have definitely gained greater advantage being a Teaching Fellow
