

Department of Social Work
School Human Environmental Sciences
The University of North Carolina at Greensboro
Requirements for Undergraduate School Social Work Licensure

1. Students eligible to be considered for admission to this program must be accepted as social work majors, have successfully completed SWK 215, Introduction to Social Work, SWK 310, Social Policy and Social Services, and SWK 311, Social Behavior and the Human Environment, all with a minimum grade of a C, and have a minimum GPA of 2.5.
2. At the completion of the fall semester of the junior year, interested students must complete the Application for Undergraduate School Social Work Licensure (found on the following page) and return it to the Coordinator of the School Social Work Licensure Program by January 20th of the spring semester in the junior year.
3. A review of the student's application will be completed to determine either a recommendation for admission or denial of admission to the Undergraduate Licensure Program in School Social Work. Students who have met the minimum eligibility criteria to be considered for admission to this program are not guaranteed this recommendation. A limited number of placements in school settings are available each year for field placements. If the number of interested applicants exceeds available placements, a priority order for acceptance into this program will be based on students' overall GPA.
4. Students recommended for admission to the UNCG Teacher Education Program will be asked to complete the Application for Admission to Undergraduate Teacher Education which will be forwarded to the UNCG Teacher Education Program. Final approval for applicants' admission to this program is made by the UNCG Teacher Education Program.
5. Students must complete their academic-year-long field instruction in a school setting (SWK 413 & SWK 415). School internships will be arranged by the Co-Directors of Field.
6. Students must successfully complete SWK 582, School Social Work, and ELC 381, The Institute of Education.
7. Approximately one month before completion of above requirements, students apply for License "A" by completing the Application for Teacher Licensure which is available through the UNCG Teacher Education Office in 319 Curry.
