

PROGRAM DIRECTOR FOR THE
JOINT MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK PROGRAM
(ASSOCIATE OR FULL PROFESSOR)

The Department of Sociology and Social Work at North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University and the Department of Social Work at The University of North Carolina at Greensboro are searching for a Director for the Joint Master of Social Work Program, operated collaboratively by both universities. This is a 12-month Associate or Full Professor position, available July 1, 2012; the position will be a joint appointment, with tenure on both campuses. The candidate must have a strong commitment to diversity/inclusion, social justice, and student-centered social work education. Preference will be given to applicants who are eligible for tenured appointment as Full Professor at both universities.

While program direction will be the central focus of the position, the selected candidate will also teach in the JMSW Program, provide service to one or both of the universities and the community, and maintain a program of scholarship. NCA&TSU and UNCG are currently planning a social work Ph.D. program; the person in this position will have the opportunity to contribute toward that planning process and participate in the Ph.D. program if it is approved.

The candidate must be able to work effectively within and between two diverse campuses and departments. Minimum Qualifications: MSW and a Ph.D. in social work or a related field; previous graduate level teaching experience in social work education; previous experience in academic administration; excellent interpersonal skills; and a record of scholarship and external funding appropriate for appointment at the rank of Associate or Full (preferred) Professor. Experience with CSWE accreditation standards and procedures is preferred.

A more detailed position description can be found at each of the following websites, along with information about the JMSW Program and each of the two universities and departments: www.jmsw.org; <http://ncat.edu/~sociolog/>; and <http://www.uncg.edu/swk/>.

Review of applications will begin on December 1, 2011 and continue until the position is filled. Applicants should send a letter of application, vita, and the names and contact information of three professional references to: Search Committee, JMSW Program, P.O. Box 20165, Greensboro, NC 27420.
