

Ann Garrison Ramsey
Academic Professional Lecturer
Master Advisor and Internship Director
School of Human Environmental Sciences
Consumer, Apparel, and Retail Studies
agramsey@uncg.edu

Education

- M.S. 2000      University of North Carolina at Greensboro
Major: Textile Products Marketing
Thesis: Mass Customization of Clergy Stoles Using Design
Process, Consumer Preferences and Applied Technology
- B.S. 1999      University of North Carolina at Greensboro
Major: Textile Products Marketing

Academic

- 2007 –              Academic Professional Lecturer, Master Advisor and Internship Director
University of North Carolina at Greensboro
- 2002-2006      Lecturer, Department of Textile Products Design and Marketing,
University of North Carolina at Greensboro

Courses taught:

- Advanced Apparel Fit Pattern Draft Tech
- Analysis Sizing, Grading, Fit
- Apparel Design by Draping
- Apparel/Textile Products Assembly Production
- Computer Applications Textile Products
- Design Principles Applied to Textile Products
- Experimental Product Design
- Introduction Textile Products Merchandising
- Introduction to Apparel and Consumer Retailing: From Concept to Consumer
- Pre-Internship: Consumer, Apparel, and Retail Industries
- Product Design Studio I
- Product Design Studio III: Creative & Experimental Design
- Product Design Studio IV: Technical Design
- Special Problems in TDM
- Textile Products: Concepts to Consumer
- Textile Products Production Management
- Textile Science: From Fiber to Finish

Undergraduate Advising

2006 - Created and Implemented a One-Day Advising model for the CARS department
Students Advised (UG)

31 students, Primary Advisor for UG students

220 students, Secondary Advisor for all CARS UG students

Service to the University

2008 – HES Representative University Undergraduate Curriculum Committee

2002 – 2008 CARS Department Jackson Library Representative

2006-2008: HES Curriculum Committee

2005-2006: Technology Committee

Professional Activities

2004-2008: American Apparel and Footwear Association, Attending Human Resources
Leadership Global Forum and Council Meeting Elected Treasurer 2006

2007: Teaching Professor Conference, Atlanta, GA

2006: Lectra Training Modaris and U4ia. New York, New York.

Community Activities

2006: Uniform Committee, Designed and contacted construction of uniforms for high school marching band

2006: Career Day Speaker

Professional Memberships

International Textile and Apparel Association

AAFA Human Resources Leadership Council

Awards and Honors

2007 HES Technology Award for course design

2007 HES Outstanding Academic Advisor, School of Human Environmental Sciences.

2000 Greensboro Graduate Scholar, Esther F. Segner Scholarship, VF
Corporation Scholarship, Graduate Research Assistant.

1999 Undergraduate Research Assistant, University Marshal.

1998 Girbaud, Healthtex, and Wrangler Scholarship, Golden Chain
Honor Society.

Projects and Presentations

2008 - Lilly Conference Poster Presentation: E-Learning, E-esthetics

2000 - Co-authored article: Mass Communication of Clergy Stoles Using Design Processes, Consumer Preferences and Applied Technology

2000 - St. Mary's House Episcopal Church: Designed and produced backdrop, altar cloth, Chasuble, stoles, and communion element covers for 100th year celebration

Prior Employment

2001-2002 Court Advocate, Family Resources of Rutherford County, Spindale, NC. Provided crisis intervention with victims of domestic violence, sexual assault and elderly abuse. Educated community about domestic violence. Served as a court advocate for clients wishing to pursue legal measures. Referred clients to resources such as legal services and the PATH shelter. Served on Rutherford County Domestic Violence Taskforce.

1999-2000 Graduate Research Assistant/Team Teacher, University of North Carolina at Greensboro, NC. Researched grant funding sources and assisted in writing grant proposals and conducting research. developed and presented classroom lectures on textile products Design specification, input materials, equipment requirements, quality costs. Instructed and assisted using industrial machines. Constructed, administered, and graded student tests.

1998-1999 Design Associate Intern, VF Playwear/Healthtex, Greensboro, NC. Assisted in line development. Created swatch cards and storyboards. Organized prints for designing the product line. Created croquis and filled them with prints, colors and art on the CAD system. Prepared sales meeting information. Completed embroidery, screen-print and fabric ID sheets. Evaluated and approved samples meeting specifications. Prepared bill of materials.

1992-1993 Head Teacher – 2 year olds, Wilmore Day Care Center, Wilmore, KY

1985-1990 Administrative Assistant, Byrd & Goff Construction Company, Glade Spring, VA