THE UNIVERSITY of NORTH CAROLINA

THE TEACHERS ACADEMY

“A community of professional educators committed to preparing and supporting the professional development of caring, collaborative, and competent educators who work in diverse settings.”

Teacher Education Student Contract

I. I understand that the teachers Academy Handbooks are available on the Teachers Academy website http://www.uncg.edu/ted/teach_acad_handbooks.html and that it is my responsibility to read the undergraduate or graduate handbook, as appropriate to my program, and comply with the information contained in that document.

I understand that I am in a professional training program and am expected to adhere to professional ethics and standards at all times. I also understand that the faculty supervisors, my cooperating teacher/OSTE and the administration in the school in which I have my field experience will regularly monitor my progress in terms of my professional knowledge, skills and dispositions. If they have any concerns about my progress, I will be notified and I may have to meet additional requirements.

I understand that I am to complete all requirements for the degree and/or licensure that I seek, and that my licensure program/department must approve any deviations from my planned program.

I understand that it is my responsibility to apply for graduation by the specified deadline during the semester in which I intend to graduate. I also understand that it is my responsibility to apply for licensure and that, if I do not do so within a year of completing my degree/licensure program, I may have to meet additional requirements.

II. Technology Requirements

All candidates applying for their North Carolina initial teaching license are required to master basic and advanced technology competencies. Basic Technology Competencies must be demonstrated by successfully completing CUI/LIS 120, a one-semester-hour course, or by preparing a section of the teaching portfolio that covers the basic competencies. Advanced Technology Competencies and Teaching Competencies must be demonstrated in the teaching portfolio.

Teaching portfolios should be developed throughout professional coursework and are submitted to the program in the last semester before graduation or program completion. Program faculty will explain the development and content of the portfolios.

III. Violations of Law

Candidates should be aware that school districts require applicants to disclose to the school district all violations of law. A candidate may be denied a student teaching or internship placement and/or employment based on a history of violations of law. If a candidate does not report a violation to the school district, he/she may be dismissed from his/her position.

Given these potential problems, candidates are urged to report all violations to the Director of the Teachers Academy when they apply for admission to the Teachers Academy. The Director will review the records confidentially for eligibility to teach.

IV. Liability Insurance

All candidates enrolled in courses that include field experience are strongly encouraged to purchase professional liability insurance prior to starting any internship, practicum, or student teaching experience. Professional liability insurance should be in effect for each course that requires a field experience as well as during student teaching. In instances in which a candidate causes damage or injury during a field experience or student teaching, neither the University nor the state of North Carolina will be responsible for providing legal defense for that candidate or for paying for any judgment which may be entered against the candidate.

Liability insurance is a benefit of membership in the Student North Carolina Association of Educators (www.sncae.org) and Kappa Delta Pi (www.kdp.org) and is available through UNCG (<http://csc.dept.uncg.edu/internships/faculty/liabilityins/>). For additional information, email Mrs. Ackerman at djackerm@uncg.edu. Candidates may also obtain liability insurance from other providers.

I have read and understand the information in items I, II, III and IV on this page.
