

Argument Paper

A local newspaper is doing a story on health in the local community. As a health educator at the local health department, a request has come across your desk for an answer to the following question: “What is the most important health problem in today’s society?” Please formulate a response to this question.

Be sure to consider the following when writing your responses:

- Back up your responses with data and national standards (i.e. Healthy Carolinians, Healthy People 2010, etc.)
- Refer to the book They Say, I Say for information on how to write an argument paper
- The paper should be no more than 2 pages in length
- This is the process for writing and rewriting:
 - Submit to your group in the 308-601 Collaboration Organization blackboard under the “Paper” link
 - Receive peer review from HEA 601 student
 - Rewrite
 - Turn in to faculty member for faculty review
 - Final Submission
