

Computational Implicature: Computational Approaches to Interpreting and Generating Conversational Implicature

AAAI Spring Symposium
Stanford University
March 25-27, 1996

Contents

Conversational Implicatures and Lexical Pragmatics Reinhard Blutner, Annette Leßmöllmann, and Rob van der Sandt	1
Pragmatic Processes of 'Completion', 'Enrichment' and 'Loosening', and the Role of Relevance Robyn Carston	10
The Role of the Gricean Maxims in the Generation of Referring Expressions Robert Dale and Ehud Reiter	16
Grice's Maxims: "Do the Right Thing" Robert E. Frederking	21
Goals for Future Computational Models of Conversational Implicature Nancy Green and Jill Fain Lehman	27
Testing Gricean Constraints on a WordNet-based Coherence Evaluation System Sanda M. Harabagiu, Dan I. Moldovan, and Takashi Yukawa	31
Commonalities and Differences in two Approaches dealing with Conversational Implicature Helmut Horacek	39
Toward a Formal Account of Context-Dependency and Underspecificity of Natural Language Lucja Iwańska	48
Conversational Conventions and Processing Considerations Aravind K. Joshi	56
The Role of Gricean Implicature in Computational Models of Speech Acts Amichai Kronfeld	58

Detecting Pragmatic Infelicities Daniel Marcu and Graeme Hirst	64
Sorting Out the Inventory Mayumi Masuko	71
Issues in Cue Phrase Implicature Jon Oberlander and Alistair Knott	78
Active Logic Applied to Cancellation of Gricean Implicature Khemdut Purang, Don Perlis, and John Gurney	86
Information Structure, Plans, and Implicature Craig Roberts	94
Computing the Implicatures carried by "the <math>\phi</math>" Kjetil Strand	103
In Defense of Semantics: Scalar Inferences as Topic-Dependent Entailments Jan van Kuppevelt	110
Inferring Rejection by Default Rules of Inference Marilyn A. Walker	117
Discourse Plans, Intended Effects and the Generation of Implicatures R. Michael Young	126
