LAWTHER LECTURE

Featuring Dr. Abigail J. Stewart

Sandra Schwartz Tangri Distinguished University Professor of Psychology and Women's Studies at The University of Michigan

Creating an Inclusive Climate:
Steps Toward Institutional Change

Dr. Stewart has published many scholarly articles and several books, focusing on the psychology of women's lives, personality, and adaptation to personal and social changes. Her current research, which combines qualitative and quantitative methods, includes comparative analyses of longitudinal studies of educated women's lives and personalities; a collaborative study of race, gender and generation in the graduates of a Midwest high school; comparative study of women's movement activism in several national contexts; and research and interventions on gender and science and technology with graduate students, postdoctoral fellows and faculty.
